

In this August Issue

August 2009

LAX Traveler Services

- Mexicana Ticketing Lobby Returning to Upper/Departures Level September 10
- Delta Brings Back its Red Coats Agents
- JetBlue Offering Travelers Triple Frequent-Flier Points at jetblue.com
- Continental to Switch Airline Alliances from SkyTeam to Star Alliance October 27

Air Service News

- American Eagle Now Offers LAX-Roswell, NM Service
- Allegiant Air Now Offers LAX-Wichita Service
- United Now Offers LAX-Pittsburgh Service
- American Eagle Announces Launch of LAX-Santa Fe Service November 19

LAX Traveler Services

Mexicana Ticketing Lobby Returning to Upper/Departures Level September 10
Mexicana's ticketing lobby will be returning to the Upper/Departures Level from its temporary site on the Lower/Arrivals Level of the Tom Bradley International Terminal September 10. The new ticketing lobbies will be located in Aisle C, are American with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliant, energy efficient, and feature recyclable materials and video back wall displays. For more information, click http://www.lawa.aero/welcome_LAX.aspx?id=502

Delta Brings Back its Red Coats Agents
Delta will bring back its trademark Red Coats agents by summer's end to LAX at Terminal 5. Equipped with handheld units, Red Coats agents' main goal is to assist passengers more efficiently such as directing passengers who have missed their connecting flights, securing boarding passes, or providing food vouchers if needed. For more information, click http://www.usatoday.com/money/industries/travel/2009-06-24-delta-red-coats-service_N.htm

JetBlue Offering Travelers Triple Frequent-Flier Points at jetblue.com
JetBlue is offering travelers triple frequent-flier points on all tickets booked at jetblue.com between July 30 and September 23. Travel must take place between August 17 and September 23. Customers must register online prior to booking tickets. For more information, click <http://www.jetblue.com/>

Continental to Switch Airline Alliances from SkyTeam to Star Alliance October 27
Continental will switch airline alliances October 27 from SkyTeam to Star Alliance. Through October 24, Continental will award bonus frequent-flier miles to travelers who take select connecting flights on Star Alliance carriers. For more information, click <http://www.continental.com/web/en-US/default.aspx>

Air Service News

American Eagle Now Offers LAX-Roswell, NM Service

American Eagle now offers four non-stop flights per week from LAX to Roswell, NM. The route is served by Embraer ERJ-140 regional jets that seat 44 passengers. For more information, click

<http://www.bizjournals.com/albuquerque/stories/2009/05/18/daily38.html>

Allegiant Air Now Offers LAX-Wichita Service

Allegiant Air now offers two weekly non-stop flights from LAX to Wichita, KS. The route is served by MD-80 series, jet-aircraft that seat 150 passengers. For more information, click <http://www.allegiantair.com/aaNews/aaNews20090219f.php>

United Now Offers LAX-Pittsburgh Service

United now offers daily service between LAX-Pittsburgh. The route is served by Airbus A319 aircraft that seat 120 passengers. For more information, click

<http://www.united.com/press/detail/0,7056,60536-1,00.html>

American Eagle Announces Launch of LAX-Santa Fe Service November 19

American Eagle will launch daily non-stop service between LAX-Santa Fe starting November 19. The route will be served by regional jets with aircraft series to be announced. For more information, click

<http://aa.mediaroom.com/index.php?s=43&item=2656>

LAX
Los Angeles World Airports

Please send newsletter comments, inquiries and suggestions to:

LAX Public Relations Division
Attn: Katherine Alvarado, Editor
One World Way, Room 109
Los Angeles CA 90045

Phone: (424) 646-5260
Fax: (424) 646-9207
To unsubscribe to the LAX Connection,
email: kalvarado@lawa.org